

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about directions to places in a limited range of social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Where would you like to go for an exceptional holiday?
- Who would you want to go with?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places and customs.
- I can ask and say where a place is.
- I can make and respond to suggestions and offers.

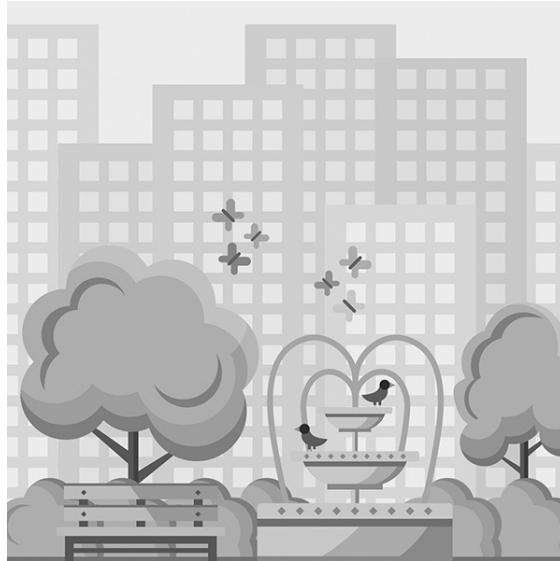

Let's Explore!

Sally and Vanessa catch up online. Time to catch up in the real world soon!

* You talk to friends in the "real world" when you meet them in person, not online.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Vanessa! How are things?
Vanessa: All good. School keeps me busy! How's life in the Big Apple?
Sally: It's amazing. There is so much to do around my hotel.
Vanessa: Where is it?
Sally: It's 2 blocks away from Central Park. You can see the skyline from the top.
Vanessa: The view from here is exceptional, too.
Sally: I love skyscrapers. They look like canyons.
Vanessa: Actually ... how about taking a trip to the Grand Canyon?
Sally: I'm not sure ... When would we go?
Vanessa: I have a break from school soon.
Sally: Well ... I'm going to the Macy's Parade on Broadway tomorrow. Then I want to go shopping on Black Friday! I also need to visit my parents for Thanksgiving weekend ...
Vanessa: Ok ... Why don't we talk after the festive season then?
Sally: Sounds great! I'd love to take that trip with you!
Vanessa: I'm glad you're excited!

Let's Practice!

Sally is very busy, but she wants to write one more blog entry before she goes to the parade.

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Read the paragraph and select all the sentences that are TRUE.

Hey guys,

Today is Black Friday! Tomorrow is the Macy's Parade. After that, I'm going to visit my parents for Thanksgiving weekend.

School keeps me busy, but I'm going to have a break soon. There is so much to do around my hotel! It's 5 blocks away from the Guggenheim!

Vanessa wants to go to the top of a skyscraper in San Francisco with me. I'm going to talk to her after the festive season!

Cheers,

Sal

Let's Practice!

Let's practice speaking. Where should we go next?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing words. Use: need to / I'd love to / about taking / not sure / Why don't we, would. Read the sentences aloud.

1. How _____ a trip to the Grand Canyon?
2. I'm _____ ...
3. When _____ we go?
4. I also _____ visit my parents for Thanksgiving weekend ...
5. _____ talk after the festive season then?
6. _____ take that trip with you!

Extension Activity

Write a dialogue to plan your next vacation.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a dialogue (8-10 lines).
- Think of a place you would like to go for a special celebration.
- Describe the place and say why you want to go there.
- Invite your partner and make suggestions.
- Practice your dialogue with your partner.
- Switch roles.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I talk about places and customs.

☐ ☐

I express preferences about places.

☐ ☐

I make an invitation to go somewhere.

☐ ☐

I make and respond to suggestions about places.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- the Big Apple (expression): another name for New York City
e.g. This is my first day in the Big Apple!
- skyscraper (noun): a very tall building
e.g. The Empire State Building is a very famous skyscraper.
- skyline (noun): the outline of buildings against the sky
e.g. The New York skyline is beautiful.
- busy (adjective): having a lot of things to do e.g. Everyone looks so busy over here!
- exceptional (adjective): outstanding; extraordinary
e.g. The museum has exceptional works of art.
- Broadway (noun): a popular street in New York
e.g. The parade continues all the way down on Broadway.
- festive season (expression): in North America, the period between Thanksgiving and Christmas e.g. Thanksgiving marks the beginning of the festive season.
- Black Friday (expression): the day after Thanksgiving when stores offer many sales e.g. I love shopping on Black Friday. Everything is so cheap!

Learning Points

Talking About Places in the City

You use Wh-questions to ask for directions and ask about places in a city.

You use the Imperative with expressions and prepositions of place to give directions.

You use the Simple Present tense to describe a place.

You use prepositions of place to say where places are.

You can use different prepositions of place to describe the same location, depending on what you want to say about it.

Asking for Directions	Giving Directions
Where does/is/are ... ? How do I get to ... ? Where can I ... ?	Let's ... Follow me. Turn right/left. Go/walk/continue ... It starts ... It goes along ... It continues ... It ends ...

Preposition	Meaning	Example
in	inside an object	The MOMA is in Midtown.
on	to touch a surface	The Frick is on 70th Street.
at	an exact position	He is at the MOMA.
north/south/east/west of	a position using the compass points	It's 2 blocks south of Central Park.
opposite	an object in front of another object	The Frick is opposite Central Park.
far	not close to another object	It's not too far from here.

