Let's Start!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about directions to places in a limited range of social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places in a city.
- I can ask and say where a place is.
- I can tell someone where something is located.

Ask your partner:

- How different are museums in your country? What is the most interesting museum?
- Generally, how much is a ticket to the museum?

Let's Explore!

The concierge at the hotel knows a great museum only 2 blocks away from Central Park! Which one is it?

* In North American cities, you can describe where things are using "blocks" as distances.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Excuse me? I'd like to visit another art museum. What do you recommend?
Concierge: You could go to the MOMA. It's 2 blocks south of Central Park. It has a lot of contemporary paintings and a street art exhibit.
Sally: Is it open every day?
Concierge: Yes, it is.
Sally: Great! Do you know how much tickets are?
Concierge: It's 25 dollars for adults. It's free on Friday afternoons!
Sally: That's fantastic.
Concierge: Another amazing museum is the Frick Collection, not too far from here.
Sally: Frick? Where is it?
Concierge: It's one of New York's best-kept secrets! It's on 70th Street, opposite Central Park. The museum has exceptional works from the romantic period.
Sally: How much are the tickets?
Concierge: An adult ticket costs 20 dollars. Entrance is pay-as-you-can on Sundays.
Sally: I love New York!
