Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: So nice to hear from you. It's been a long time. I missed you!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you have a friend who lives out of the country? Where?
- How do you communicate? By phone? Skype? E-mail?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use words that end with -ed.
- I can express negative statements.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Sally are on a video chat. Where are they planning to go?

* A "video chat" is when you talk to someone online and they can see your face.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Hey Sally ... you world traveler!
- Sally: Hi! I missed you. Sally's Suitcase is back home!
- Vanessa: I am so excited to see you. I've waited for months.
- Sally: Yeah.
- Vanessa: When are we catching up?
- Sally: Aren't you still in San Francisco?
- Vanessa: Yes, I'm staying with my Aunt Nelly and studying at the Blue Ribbon Academy.
- Sally: Didn't you rent an apartment?
- Vanessa: No, she kindly offered to let me stay with her.
- Sally: That's nice of her. I mentioned to Peter that you and I might go to the Grand Canyon in a couple weeks.
- Vanessa: You haven't booked it yet?
- Sally: Actually, I forgot. I am planning to do it today.
- Vanessa: Hmmmm ... You didn't remember to make reservations?
- Sally: Sorry, I wanted to take this trip to the Grand Canyon last year.
- Vanessa: I'm booking things in the future.

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

Regular verbs make their Past tense by adding - d, - ed,

If the verb ends in a consonant + y, change the y to i and add - ed.

Example:

She offered to let me stay at her house.

I missed my flight to Boston.

Some past verb forms are irregular. They do not end in -ed.

Here is a list of irregular verbs.

Verb	Simple Past tense
arise	arose
break	broke
be	was / were
beat	beat
become	became
