Let's Start!

Thanksgiving is a great time of year! Look at all the floats and balloons!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about directions to places in a limited range of social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places and customs.
- I can ask for and give directions.
- I can tell someone where something is located.

Ask your partner:

- What is your favorite time of year?
- Do you have a favorite celebration?
- What does it mean to you?

Let's Explore!

The concierge tells Sally about a Thanksgiving* tradition in New York City. Let's find out about the Macy's Parade!

* "Thanksgiving" is an important holiday for Americans. In the USA, it is in November.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: I have one more question.

Concierge: How can I help you?

Sally: What can you tell me about the Macy's Parade?

Concierge: Aahhh. This is an event you don't want to miss! It is a true New York staple!

Sally: What is the Parade about?

Concierge: It celebrates the beginning of the festive season. People gather on the streets. They watch the massive balloons and floats go by.

Sally: Where does it start?

Concierge: It starts at the Museum of Natural History, on 77th Street. Then it goes along Central Park West. The parade continues all the way down on Broadway. It ends at Macy's, on 34th and 7th.

Sally: When is it?

Concierge: It's on Thanksgiving Day! It celebrates this great American tradition.

Sally: Ohh ... Thanksgiving at Macy's? I love shopping!

Concierge: You should wait until Black Friday then!
